First and last name: Brooke Rochester

Short bio: Brooke was born in Canada but has grown up in Jaco almost all her life (over 35 years!), she has truly been able to see this beautiful surf town transform into a hot spot known across the world. With over a decade of working with Pacific Properties in everything from office administration, sales, and luxury rentals, to creating her own division of the company in property management at one point, she has gained insight and extensive knowledge about the area and local market.

Both Brooke and her mom/business partner Daphne have also been local translators with the local Garabito courts for over 10 years adding an additional layer of insight and knowledge to their local experience.

Pacific Properties is proudly a family and women owned business supporting local community & NGO's.
